WHEREAS, the City of New Haven is home to a diverse population which contributes to the City's economy and cultural richness; and

WHEREAS, the City's Administration is committed to promoting the health and safety of all its residents, without regard to their immigration status, in order to achieve the city's goals of protecting life, liberty and property:

NOW THEREFORE: I, Toni N. Harp, by virtue of the power vested in me, as Mayor of the City of New Haven, by the Charter and the laws of the State of Connecticut, hereby proclaim as follows:

a. This nation's creed is well-spelled out by the Emma Lazarus sonnet, displayed at the Statue of Liberty, which states in part...

   "a mighty woman with a torch...she with silent lips [proclaims] Give me your tired, your poor. Your huddled masses yearning to break free...Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost to me. I lift my lamp beside the golden door."

b. This American promise of welcome to the immigrants of the world, from wherever they come, has long-defined the true spirit of our nation; it drives the Constitution State and the goals of our City.
